National Council for Disability

Bill No. 18 (Amendment) Bill 2010

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR DISABILITY

(AMENDMENT) BILL, 2010

MEMORANDUM

1. Policy and principles

The policy of this Bill is to amend the National Council for Disability Act, 2003 (Act No. 14 of 2003) to streamline the election of persons with disabilities to Parliament and local government councils.

2. Object of the Bill

The object of the Bill is—

- (a) to amend section 6 of the National Council for Disability Act, 2003, to include the areas where the National Council for Disability is required to assist the Electoral Commission under section 6(1)(i) in respect of elections of representatives of persons with disabilities to Parliament and local government councils;
- (b) to introduce new provisions in the Act on elections of representatives of persons with disabilities and Schedules providing for the electoral structure and disability codings.

3. Provisions of the Bill

Clause 1 of the Bill seeks to amend section 6 of the Act to provide that the National Council for Disabilities shall assist the Electoral Commission under section 6(1)(i) of the Act in respect of conducting consultations with organisations of persons with disabilities.

The Bill also in clause 2 introduces a new Part VA of the Act dealing solely with elections.

New section 31A introduced by this Part provides for the creation of electoral colleges for the election of representatives of persons with disabilities. Clause 31A(2) provides that in forming the electoral colleges gender should be taken into consideration. Proposed section 31A(3) requires the Electoral Commission to facilitate the formation of electoral colleges at different levels of Government.

Section 31A along with new Schedule A provides for the electoral structure for election of representatives of persons with disabilities.

Proposed section 31B in new Part VA allows the multiparty system to be applied in the formation of electoral colleges. New section 31C introduces along with proposed Schedule C codings for determination of disabilities.

Clause 3 of the Bill seeks to amend the Act to introduce Schedules A and B referred to above.

HON. OPIO GABRIEL,
Minister of Gender, Labour and Social Development.

Bill No. 18

National Council for Disability
(Amendment) Bill
