of a licence.

35. (1) Notwithstanding the Minister's power to issue major licences, the Commission shall prescribe the terms and conditions of all operators, as it considers consistent with the policy objectives under Section 3 and such other circumstances as the Commission may consider appropriate and in particular—

(a) in the case of a licence to establish a radio communications station, the Commission will specify the positions and nature of the station, the purpose for and circumstances in which and the persons by whom the station may be installed or used;

(b) in the case of any other telecommunication licence, specifications as to the apparatus which may be installed or used, the places where, the purposes for, the circumstances in which and the persons by whom an apparatus may be used; and

(c) in the case of a postal services licence, specifications as to the services to be performed, the places of postal services and the geographical spreading of these services and places.

(2) Without limiting the generality under subsection (1) a licence may include the provision of services to rural or sparsely populated areas or other specified areas and other conditions as provided under the Fourth Schedule.

(3) An operator shall have an obligation to provide the service for which that operator has obtained a licence efficiently and at a reasonable cost.

Modification
of a licence.

36. (1) The Commission may, upon reasonable grounds, modify the conditions of any licence if the Commission considers modification necessary to achieve the objectives of this Act, or is in the public interest; taking into account the justified interests of operators and the principles of fair competition and equality of treatment.

(2) Before modifying any condition of a licence the Commission shall give the operator thirty days notice stating the reasons for the intended modifications and giving the operator opportunity to make any representation.

(3) The Commission shall give due consideration to any representations made by the operator.

(4) The Commission may grant an operator a period of time to comply with the modification of the licence where modification causes undue hardship to the operator.

(5) The Commission may, if it considers it appropriate to do so, in furtherance of the objectives of this Act, modify any condition of a licence on the application of the operator.

(6) Without prejudice to the foregoing, the modification of major licences shall be approved by the Minister.

(7) An operator may appeal to the Tribunal if the operator is aggrieved by a decision of the Commission or the Minister under this section.

37. (1) Every licence shall contain provisions for the suspension and revocation of the licence and the issuing authority may suspend or revoke a licence in accordance with those terms.

Suspension and revocation
of a licence.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the issuing authority may suspend or revoke a licence on the following grounds—

(a) serious and repeated breach of the licence conditions;

(b) any fraud or intentional misrepresentation by the operator applying for the licence;

(c) where the operator is engaged in or is supporting activities amounting to a treasonable offence under the Penal Code; or

(d) where the operator has ceased to be an eligible person.

(3) After due consideration of any representations by the operator the Commission may—

(a) prescribe time during which the operator is required to remedy the offending act or conduct;

(b) require the payment of a fine as specified in the Third Schedule.

(4) The Commission shall give the operator thirty days written notice with reasons, of the intended suspension or revocation, during which the operator shall have an opportunity to make representations to the Commission.

(5) Where the Commission is of the opinion that the measures under subsection (3) are not sufficient, it may—

(a) suspend the licence for a specified period of time;

(b) revoke the licence.

Transfer of a licence.

38. (1) A licence may not be transferred without the written consent of the Commission.

(2) An operator may apply to the Commission in a prescribed form and manner for the transfer of a licence.

(3) An application under subsection (2) shall be accompanied by an application, by the person to whom the operator intends to transfer the licence, for the grant of a licence under section 33.

(4) The Commission shall in considering an application for transfer have regard to the same terms and conditions as in considering a grant of a new licence, provided that the Commission may in its absolute discretion refuse to grant the application under this section.

(5) For the purposes of this section—

“transfer of licence” includes the acquisition of control of the licence holder;

“control” means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management of the operator holding the licence, whether through ownership of shares, voting, securities, partnership or other ownership interests, agreement or otherwise.

39. (1) In the case of postal services, a licensee may use a subcontractor to perform the services subject to the licensee's responsibility to comply with all obligations and conditions under this Act and under the licence.

Sub-contracting by a licensee.

(2) The liability of a subcontractor of a licensee under subsection (1) in the collection, transmission or delivery of any postal article or for loss or delay of or damage to the article or any other loss or damage in relation to the performance of postal services, shall be limited to the same extent as the liability of the licensee by regulations made under this Act, but this subsection shall not affect the liability of the subcontractor to the licensee.

40. (1) An application for the renewal of a licence shall be made at least six months before the expiration of the licence in the case of a major licence, and one month in the case of a minor licence.

Lapse and renewal of licence.

(2) In considering an application for a renewal of a licence, the Commission shall have regard to the performance of the operator.

Licence to comply with conventions etc.

41. An operator under this Act shall comply with relevant international conventions, regulations and recommendations.

Use of
licence.

42. A licence shall not be used for a purpose other than that for which it was issued.

PART VIII—USE OF LAND FOR TELECOMMUNICATIONS LINES.

Designation of public operator.

43. The Commission may designate a person licensed under section 34 to be a public operator whose licence shall be subject to the following conditions—

- (a) to provide communications services specified in the licence to the public, including other operators;
- (b) to connect to any telecommunication system or to permit the connection of any system or other system as may be specified in the licence;
- (c) not to show undue preference to or exercise undue discrimination against any person in respect of any service provided, connection made or permission given in its operation; and
- (d) other terms and conditions that the Commission may specify in the licence or under regulations.

Power of operator to use land.

44. (1) Any operator authorised by the Commission either generally or on a particular occasion may place and maintain a telecommunications lines in, over or upon any land, and for that purpose it shall be lawful, upon written authorisation, for the operator, or representative—

- (a) at all times on reasonable notice, to enter upon any land and put up any posts which may be required for the support of any telecommunications lines;
- (b) to fasten or attach to any tree growing on that land a bracket or other support for the line;

(c) to cut down any tree or branch which is likely to injure, impede or interfere with any telecommunications lines; and

(d) to perform any activities necessary for the purpose of establishing, constructing, repairing, improving, examining, altering or removing any telecommunications lines, or for performing any other activities under the provisions of this Act;

(2) An operator shall not in the exercise of the powers conferred under this section except with the consent of the owner of the land, under, over, along, across, in or upon which any telecommunications line is placed—

(a) acquire any right other than that of user of the land under, over, along, across, in or upon which any telecommunications line or post is placed and only for the reason of that exercise;

(b) exercise those powers in respect of any land vested in or under the control or management of a local authority or other public authority, except in accordance with the procedure set out in section 45.

(3) An operator shall do as little damage as possible to the land and to the environment and shall pay reasonable compensation to all interested persons for any damage or loss sustained by reason of the exercise of the powers under this section.

(4) Before entering any private land for the purposes specified under subsection (1) an operator shall give thirty days notice, stating as fully and as accurately as possible the nature and extent of the acts intended to be done.

(5) The owner of the land for the purposes specified in subsection (1) may within thirty days of the receipt of the notice under subsection (4), lodge a written objection with the Commission and the Commission shall specify a date to inquire into the objection.

(6) If no objection is lodged within the time specified under subsection (3), the operator may forthwith enter the land and do all or any of the acts specified in the notice given under subsection (4).

(7) Using the conclusion of the inquiry, the Commission may authorise either unconditionally or subject to terms, conditions and stipulations as it considers fit, any of the acts mentioned in the notice given under subsection (4).

(8) A person aggrieved by determination of the Commission may within thirty days appeal to the Tribunal.

Procedure
for using public land.

45. (1) Where an operator authorised by the Commission intends to enter any land under the management or control of an urban council or other public authority, the operator shall give thirty days notice to the urban council or other public authority stating the nature and extent of the acts intended to be done.

(2) The urban council or other public authority may within thirty days of the receipt of the notice under subsection (1) permit the operator to exercise any or all of the powers under section 44 subject to conditions, including the payment of any fee for the use of the property, the time or mode of execution of any works, or for any other related activity undertaken by the operator under that section.

(3) Where an operator considers unacceptable the terms set by the urban council or other public authority to use the land for the purposes specified in the notice referred to under subsection (1), the operator may, after the expiration of the notice, apply to the Commission for a decision on the matter and the Commission may specify a date to inquire into and decide the matter.

(4) A person aggrieved by the decision of the Commission may within thirty days appeal to the Tribunal.

46. (1) On application by an owner of land in, over or upon which an operator has placed a telecommunications line under section 44, the Commission may, upon presentation of convincing evidence, order the operator, subject to any conditions, to alter the position of the line or remove it.

Removal or alteration of a telecommunications line.

(2) On the application by a local council or other public authority the Commission may, upon presentation of convincing evidence—

- (a) order an operator, subject to conditions that the Commission may determine to alter the route of any telecommunications line situated or proposed to be situated within the jurisdiction of the local Council or other public authority; or
- (b) prohibit the construction or maintenance by the operator of any telecommunications line except as directed by the Commission.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Commission may within thirty days appeal to the Tribunal.

47. (1) Any question as to a person's entitlement to compensation for right of use or as to the sufficiency of the amount of compensation under subsection (3) shall in default of agreement be determined as if the land had been acquired under the Land Acquisition Act.

Compensation.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Commission may within thirty days appeal to the Tribunal.

(3) A claim for compensation under this section shall be lodged with the Commission within three years of the date of the act of the operator giving rise to the claim.

48. (1) In the event that an operator considers the acquisition of land, or an interest in land greater than the right of use, necessary for the purpose of providing communications services to the public, the operator may, with approval of the Commission, request action by the Minister responsible for lands.

Compulsory purchase of land.

7st

(2) The Commission shall provide a copy of its approval to the Minister responsible for land and to the owner of or person having interest in the land.

(3) If the Minister responsible for land is satisfied that the land or interest in the land is required for the purpose of providing telecommunications services to the public, and it is in the public interest, then that Minister shall pursue the acquisition of the land on behalf of the operator.

(4) The operator shall, where the Minister acquires land on behalf of that operator under subsection (3), bear all the costs involved, and the provisions of section 37 shall apply.

PART IX—ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW, INVESTIGATION AND INSPECTIONS.

Annual report on
of licensee.

49. Every licensee shall, at the end of each year of business prepare and submit to the Commission in a prescribed form, a report on the operations and services of the licensee and to the extent to which the conditions of the licence are followed.

Investigation
complaints.

50. (1) It shall be the duty of the Commission to investigate any matter falling within its functions under this Act which relates to—

(a) communications services provided or communications apparatus supplied in Uganda; and

(b) any representation made to the Commission by or on behalf of a person whom the Commission considers to have an interest in the matter which is the subject of the representation.

Power to institute enquiries.

51. (1) The Commission may appoint any person or committee to inquire into and report to the Commission on any matter pending before the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall institute an enquiry if so directed by the Minister.

(3) The Commission may give to a person or committee appointed under this section directions regarding procedures for conducting an enquiry.

52. (1) A person or committee appointed to carry out enquiries under section 50 shall submit a report to the Commission in a form and manner that the Commission may direct.

Report on investigations.

(2) Where an enquiry is instituted pursuant to the direction of the Minister, the Commission shall submit a copy of the report to the Minister.

53. Where as a result of an investigation the Commission is satisfied that an operator has breached a condition of a licence or an obligation under this Act, it may direct the operator in writing to remedy the breach or to do such act as the Commission may specify in the direction, in accordance with the procedures specified in section 37.

Directions to remedy breaches of licence conditions.

54. (1) The Commission may appoint inspectors for the purposes of verifying compliance with the provisions of this Act and the decisions of the Commission under this Act.

Appointment of inspectors.

(2) An inspector shall be provided with a certificate of identity which shall be presented at the request of any person appearing to be in charge of any place entered by the inspector in accordance with subsection (1).

55. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), an inspector may—

Powers of an inspector.

- (a) enter and inspect at any reasonable time any place owned by or under the control of an operator in which the inspector believes on reasonable grounds to be any document, information, or apparatus relevant to the enforcement of this Act and examine the document, information or apparatus or remove it for examination or reproduction as the case may be;

(b) enter any place on which the inspector has reason to believe that there is any radio apparatus or interference-causing apparatus, and examine any radio apparatus, logs, books, reports, data, records, documents or other papers, and remove the information, document, apparatus, or equipment for examination or reproduction as the case may be;

(c) make use of any copying equipment or means of communication located at the place.

(2) Where a place referred to under subsection (1) is a dwelling house, an inspector may not enter that dwelling house without the consent of the occupant, except—

(a) under the authority of a warrant issued under section 56; or

(b) where by reason of exigent circumstances, it would not be practical for the inspector to obtain a warrant.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (2), “exigent circumstances” include circumstances in which the delay arising from obtaining a warrant would result in danger to human life or safety, loss, or destruction of evidence.

(4) The owner or person in charge of a place entered by an inspector shall give the inspector all reasonable assistance to enable the inspector to carry out the inspector’s duties under this Act and shall give the inspector any information reasonably requested.

56. (1) Where on application a Magistrate is satisfied by information on oath that—warrant.

(a) entry to a dwelling house is necessary for the purpose of performing any duty of an inspector under this Act; and

(b) entry to a dwelling house has been refused or is likely to be refused, the Magistrate may issue a warrant authorising the inspector named therein to enter that dwelling house, subject to conditions specified in the warrant.

(2) In executing a warrant issued under this section, an inspector shall not use force unless accompanied by a police officer, and unless the use of force is specifically authorised in the warrant.

(3) For the purposes of this section, “Magistrate” shall mean a Magistrate at the rank of Grade I or above.

PART X—FAIR COMPETITION AND EQUALITY OF TREATMENT.

57. The Commission shall, in the performance of its functions under this Act, promote, develop and enforce fair competition and equality of treatment among all operators in any business or service relating to communication.

Commission to encourage fair
competition.

58. (1) An operator shall not engage in any activities, whether by act or omission, which have, or are intended to or likely to have, the effect of unfairly preventing, restricting or distorting competition in relation to any business activity relating to communications services.

Prohibition of acts exhibiting unfair
competition.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) an act or omission referred to under that subsection shall include—

- (a) any abuse by an operator, either independently or with others, of a dominant position which unfairly excludes or limits competition between such operator and any other party;
- (b) entering any agreement or engaging in any concerted practice with any other party, which unfairly prevents, restricts or distorts competition; or
- (c) the effectuation of anti-competitive changes in the market structure, and in particular, anti-competitive mergers and acquisitions of services.

(3) A person having control of a major operator or a major operator shall not acquire ownership interest conferring control in another organisation operating or providing communication services under this Act to that person or operator.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) “control” has the meaning under subsection (5) of section 38.

Exceptions to fair
competition.

59. (1) The Commission may, in writing, allow an operator to carry on any act or omission prohibited under section 58 if, in its opinion, the act or omission—

- (a) contributes to,
 - (i) the improvement of any goods or services;
 - (ii) the promotion of communications services in Uganda in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and
- (b) does not,
 - (i) impose on the parties involved, restrictions which are not indispensable to attaining the objective specified under paragraph (a); and

- (ii) give the parties involved the ability to substantially reduce competition in respect of the goods or services in question.

60. (1) The Commission may, by its own motion, investigate any operator who commits any act or omission in breach of fair competition.

Breach of fair competition.

(2) Any person having a complaint of a breach of fair competition against an operator shall lodge a complaint to the Commission and the Commission shall, if it appears that a breach of competition has been committed, investigate the act or omission and give written notice to the operator stating—

- (a) that the Commission is investigating a possible breach of fair competition;
- (b) the reasons for the suspicion of a contravention or breach, including any matter of facts or law which are relevant to the investigation;
- (c) further information required from the operator in order to complete the investigations; and
- (d) where appropriate, the steps to be taken in order to remedy the breach.

(3) The operator may, within thirty days from the date of the notice, make representations in response to the notice and give to the Commission all information required under the notice.

(4) Any person affected by the contravention or breach of fair competition may make a representation to the Commission in relation thereto.

(5) The Commission shall, after considering any representations of the operator or any other person, fix a date on which to make a decision on the matter.

(6) The Commission may, upon satisfaction that an operator is competing unfairly—

- (a) order the operator to stop the unfair competition;
- (b) require the operator to pay a fine not exceeding the equivalent of ten percent of the annual turnover of the operator;
- (c) declare any anti-competitive agreements or contracts null and void.

(7) The provisions of subsection (6) shall not affect in any way the right of a person to take any other action against the operator under section 73 or any other law.

(8) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Commission under this section may appeal to the Tribunal.

(9) The provisions of this section, shall not limit or in any way affect the obligations of an operator under any condition of a licence.

Non-denial of service.

61. No operator shall deny access or service to a customer except for delinquency of payment of dues or for any other just cause.

Equality of treatment.

62. An operator shall provide equal opportunity for access to the same type and quality of service to all customers in a given area at substantially the same tariff, limiting variations to available or appropriate technologies required to serve specific subscribers.

Interconnection
of network facilities.

63. (1) A telecommunications operator may, with the approval of the Commission, enter into an agreement with any other operator for the purpose of connecting its network facilities with the network facilities of that other operator on terms and conditions that the first operator and the other operator may agree.

(2) The operators referred to in subsection (1) shall submit to the Commission an application for approval of an interconnection agreement accompanied by a copy of the proposed interconnection agreement.

(3) Upon receipt of the application and proposed interconnection agreement, the Commission shall within thirty days respond to the application in writing any failure of the Commission to respond in writing the application shall be deemed to be approved.

(4) The Commission may, on its own initiative or on the application of an operator, impose an interconnection agreement on two operators if a negotiated agreement is not possible and if the Commission determines that such agreement promotes fair competition.

(5) Before imposing an interconnection agreement between two or more operators, the Commission shall give each operator thirty days notice stating the reasons for the intended imposition, and giving the operators opportunity to make representations.

(6) The Commission may issue guidelines in accordance with which telecommunication operators may negotiate interconnection agreements.

PART XI—OFFENCES.

(2) A vacancy under paragraph (a) of subsection (1), shall be determined—

(a) in the case of a member of the Tribunal, by the President on the recommendation of the Minister; and

(b) in the case of a Technical Advisor by the Minister.

(3) A member of the Tribunal may resign office by notification in writing to the President.

(4) A Technical Advisor may resign office by notification in writing to the Minister.

(5) Upon the resignation or removal of a member of the Tribunal, the recommending body shall recommend another person to be appointed by the President; and upon the resignation or removal of a Technical Advisor, another person shall be appointed by the Minister.

Jurisdiction of the Tribunal.

80. (1) The Tribunal shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters relating to communications services arising under this Act.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, the jurisdiction of the Tribunal does not include the trial of any criminal offence.

(3) The Tribunal shall in the exercise of its jurisdiction under this Act have all powers of the High Court and for that purpose the Civil Procedure Rules applicable to a civil action in the High Court shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to proceedings before the Tribunal.

81. (1) The Tribunal shall have power to review its own judgments and orders.

Power of review and appeals from Tribunal.

(2) Judgments and orders of the Tribunal shall be executed and enforced in the same manner as judgments and orders of the High Court.

(3) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Tribunal may within thirty days from the date of the decision or order appeal to the Court of Appeal.

(4) The law applicable to appeals from the High Court in civil matters shall, with the necessary modifications or the other written adjustments as the Chief Justice may direct, apply to appeals from the Commission to the Tribunal and from the Tribunal to the Court of Appeal.

(5) Except in the case of an appeal under this section, it shall not be lawful for any court or tribunal to entertain any action or proceeding of any nature for the purpose of questioning any judgment, finding, ruling, order or proceeding of the Tribunal.

82. (1) The Tribunal shall in the exercise of its Tribunal functions under this Act, be guided by the rules of natural justice.

Procedure
of the Tribunal.

(2) The Tribunal shall be duly constituted if the Chairperson and one other member are present.
